

halloween haunts

Looking for eerie, fun ways to celebrate the season? Here's a roundup.

Once you're past the age for trick-or-treating, you're ripe to jump into the more intriguing aspects of Halloween. We've rounded up more than a dozen of our favorites. Each one will add a new dimension to the meaning of All Hallows Eve. Take the kids along—and happy haunting!

COLORADO

Cripple Creek

719-689-9113

www.cripple-creek.co.us/ghost.html

Fridays and Saturdays, from May 25 to October 31

This 120-year-old mining town is known for its Victorian and brownstone homes, many of which claim to be “haunted.” During the 90-minute Ghost Walk tour, you'll hear all the stories. Adults $8; children $5.

FLORIDA

St. Augustine

888-461-1009

www.ghosttoursofstaugustine.com

October 26, 27, 31

An actress dressed to look like the ghost of mean old Lucy Abbott, who was the original owner of a house here, frightens tourists with her rale as part of a Halloween ghost tour around St. Augustine, the oldest continuously inhabited city in America. Two